Our mini talk for February 24th was by Ralph Jorgensen who gave us a brief history of the Probus Club. Five minutes was not enough time to hear all the highlights. The club began in 1922, highest number of members was 70. It was only in 1996 that women where allowed to join the club. Sid brought the first female member into the club.

The Craft Talk was given by Adam Kilmury, Adam covered topics including MAC vs PC, networking at home or in a small office, backing up information, data recovery, anti virus, fire walls and emails. Don't be scared to ask him questions.

The 50/50 winner for February 24th was Veralin Phillips-Michael

Our mini talk for March 10th was presented by Peter Whalley representing Compro Services. An overview of cleaning services provided by Compro Services was given.

Our guest speaker for March 10th was the President of Mount Royal University, Dr. David Marshall. It was an informative and educating talk enjoyed by all.

50/50 winner for March 10th was Adam Kilmury

Barbara , Sweetly Speaking, needs our help. Go to www.urbanspoon.com look for her company's name in the message board. If you have a story about her chocolates, write a review.

Did I mention the Probus Trade Show on March 24th instead of our regular meeting. If you have any questions, contact Netty Palmer.
